

I LOVE my XM radio because when traveling I don't have to continue to hunt radio stations and if your listening to a game or anything then you don't have to worry about hunting it on another station when you get out of range. Looks like since we pay for it then we should have the right to have the choice as to wheater to listen to local or XM.